HOW TO CHOOSE THE RIGHT CRUISE FOR YOU

There is so much choice it can feel a little overwhelming when it comes to choosing the right cruise and itinerary that best suits you. After all, everyone has a different idea of what the perfect cruise is. In this guide, you will find all the cruise types, destinations, and style of cruising to select from. Here are our suggestions for narrowing the choice down to find just the right cruise for you.

CHOOSE YOUR DESTINATION

Start with selecting what destinations you would like to travel to on your cruise. If you decide to travel close to home, on cruises that depart from Australia you can depart from Sydney, Brisbane, Adelaide, Fremantle, Melbourne, Broome, Darwin, Cairns and Hobart. Cruises leaving from Australia travel to the South Pacific, Fiji, New Zealand and around Australia. Destinations further afield like Europe or Alaska, will require you to fly to your departure country.

CHOOSE YOUR ONBOARD CRUISE EXPERIENCE

Different ships cater to different experiences and styles of cruising. Carnival Cruises and Royal Caribbean Cruise Line are designed for family fun; Cunard Line offers a more refined, traditional cruise experience. Do you want a luxury cruise with all the bells and whistles, or a good value family holiday? Are you travelling as a family, as a couple, with friends or solo?

CHOOSE THE SHIP TO SUIT YOU

Once you have decided on the cruise experience you want, you will be able to narrow down which cruise line to choose. Some ships have a large capacity with a distinct big-resort feel, others are much smaller. Some are adults-only, some welcome children. Some are ultra-luxurious, others designed with family comfort in mind. Take time to explore your options.

YOUR CRUISING OPTIONS

LUXURY CRUISES

The world is open and ready for you to explore. Whether you are indulging in a luxury cruise because you haven't traveled in several years and now want to do so in style, or you simply expect nothing less than luxury standards on your travels, you won't be disappointed. There is nothing quite like a luxury cruise experience and today's luxury cruise options have never been better.

Start by choosing the destination. You can travel to any destination a standard cruise ship travels to and even more remote locations on a luxury cruise ship. Whether it's the Mediterranean, Northern Europe, the Caribbean, Asia or a luxury expedition cruise to the Arctic or Antarctica, you can do so in luxury.

WHAT TO EXPECT ON A LUXURY CRUISE

- ❑ Luxury ships are generally small to medium in size with less guests onboard. They have a higher staff to guest ratio, some even having private butlers for each suite.
- ❑ Accommodation is premium, being more spacious with high-end linen and designed for indulgence. Many ships are designed so all suites have ocean views from balconies and large panoramic windows.
- ❑ Personalised and premium service are trademarks of luxury cruises. Staff are highly skilled and go above and beyond to make your journey as enjoyable and comfortable as possible.
- ❑ Ultra-luxurious onboard dining, facilities and activities will make your cruise experience one to remember. You'll have access to incredible day spas and pools, luxurious lounges and bars and other facilities you'd expect in a luxury land-based resort or hotel.
- ❑ Luxury travel is not one-size-fits-all when it comes to cruises. Some lines focus on smaller ships, impeccable service and inclusive fares. Others care more about delivering immersive experiences in bucket-list destinations, while some larger cruise lines create exclusive, high-end enclaves on otherwise mass-market vessels.

- ❑ Fares may include a variety of extras to make your journey as enjoyable and seamless as possible. These may include pre or post hotel accommodations, car service from your home to the airport, a minibar stocked to your preference, in addition to exclusive events and onshore tours, or dedicated concierge or butler services onboard.
- ❑ Some popular cruise lines include Silversea Cruises, Seabourn, Uniworld Boutique River Cruises, Ponant, Scenic Cruises, Cunard Line and Oceania Cruises. You can explore these more on page 30.

CRUISE COMPANIONS

GOING SOLO

Many cruisers decide to take a solo cruise trip and enjoy the time alone to reflect and reset. Cruising solo does not mean you will be alone, most cruise ships offer a variety of opportunities where solo cruisers can socialise and make new friends. Enjoy the best of both worlds, socialise and disconnect all in one trip.

Here are some tips to consider when booking a solo cruise:

- ✘ Talk to your agent about adults-only cruises
- ✘ Look for cruise lines with single cabins
- ✘ Ask your cruise agent about no single supplement fees

COUPLE CRUISES

Cruising with a loved one is a terrific way to reconnect and create memories that will last a lifetime. The excellent dining options onboard paired with the amazing view from the ship will make every night date night. It is important to choose the right cruise line and time to go on a couple's cruise getaway.

Here are some tips to consider when booking a couple's cruise:

- ✘ Travel outside of school holidays
- ✘ Contemplate picking a luxury cruise liner
- ✘ Look for cruises with adults-only areas
- ✘ Let your cruise agent know if you are celebrating a special occasion

FAMILY FUN

Cruising is popular across multi-generations making it the perfect family holiday option. From kids' clubs, adults-only clubs and adult only retreats to waterslides and musicals, cruise ships cater to everyone's needs.

Here are some tips to consider when booking a family cruise:

- ❑ Look for cruise lines where kid's fares are cheaper, or kids cruise free
- ❑ Make sure shore excursions suit everyone
- ❑ Ask your cruise agent for adjoining suites
- ❑ Explore the different children's programmes available
- ❑ If your cruise is in summer or school holidays, book early to get the best value

CRUISING WITH FRIENDS

Everything is better with friends around, including a cruise holiday. Cruises are a good option for friends' holidays as there is less organising involved. Apart from special dining options and onshore activities, everything else is taken care of. Cruise lines offer a large spectrum of activities from rock climbing and water slides to spa days and Broadway-themed shows, there's never a boring moment on a cruise ship.

Here are some tips to consider when booking a cruise trip with friends:

- ❑ Book early to get rooms next to each other
- ❑ Plan out and book shore excursions early
- ❑ Certain ships suit certain age groups so ask your cruise agent about the different options

WHAT TO EXPECT ON BOARD

Cruise lines are committed to ensuring a memorable time onboard whilst implementing effective and adaptable protocols to the evolving public health situation. Here's some of the elements that have changed to adhere to COVID-19 protocols.

TESTING

Cruise ships departing from Australia and New Zealand require all guests to produce a negative COVID-19 RAT test prior to boarding the cruise. Cruise ships departing from other countries mostly do not require any testing prior to boarding for vaccinated guests.

VACCINATION

For cruise ships departing from Australia or New Zealand, 95% of guests over the age of 12 are required to be vaccinated (at least two doses of an approved vaccine). The remaining 5% of unvaccinated guests will need to provide proof of a medical exemption.

MASKS

You will need to mask up during check-in whilst inside the cruise terminal and during embarkation and disembarkation. Onboard some cruise ships, masks are also required or recommended to be worn indoors (except when eating or drinking) and when you cannot socially distance.

EXTRA ADDITIONS TO SHIPS

To ensure the safety of guests cruise lines have introduced a number of changes. This includes increased ventilation and sanitation, additional medical staff on board and most cruise lines offer quarantine facilities if a passenger tests positive on board. Most cruise lines are also moving away from traditional muster drills by delivering the drill through apps and are introducing self-serve buffets where passengers can help themselves.
